ation in the construction of substantial jail quarters on Jail Street at its present location. As to filling in the Park, the bids received were found to be entirely too high, considering the proximity of material which can be taken from the beach. He therefore proposes to re-advertise for bids, to be filed with his office on or before June 25. The contract will be let immediately before July

He has selected F. B. McStocker chairman, H. J. Lyman and M. Portermembers of the Olaa and Puna Road Board. For the Hilo Board, he has already appointed John T. Moir, chairman, and Geo. Ross of Hakalau. For the third member he was undecided as between F. Brughelli, E. N. Holmes and the reappointment of Sheriff Andrews. The Sheriff said he did not care to seek more trouble than he meets in the routine duties of his office, and it is probable he will not be chosen.

drivers in the employ of the Volcano wife by shooting her with a pistol.

Captain Rowland and two officers proceeded to the place at Kukuau where the shooting had taken place. The wounded woman was found in the dwelling back of Dan Kalhenul's house and from persons who had gathered 't was learned that Mike and his wife had a disagreement at noon time, jealousy being the cause. He returned home just before six o'clock and started to renew the fight when his wife ran out of the house. She was followed by her husband, who fired a shot from his revolver which missed her. The woman stopped and Mike grabbed her and fired another shot which took effect in her abdomen, the ball passing through and lodging in the back. Once in her shoulder blade. She fell to the ground and Mike ran away, stopping to rest when he reached the one mile post and then starting to town.

Near the residence of J. S. Canario on Volcano Street he threw away his revolver and a five dollar gold piece and further along near the bridge he threw away some silver coin. He stopped when he reached the Foreign church and in the midst of a heavy rain storm sat down on the terrace. While Lehuenui was sitting there Rufus Lyman passed and asked what the matter was, Mike answered that he had had trouble with his wife. Young Lyman then told him he was wanted at the station house. The man made no resistance and walked along the street with Lyman until they met a policeman. At the station Mike was found to be under the influence of liquor. He made a statement and remarked that if he had killed his wife, he would have to die, too.

At a hearing before Judge Hapai the prisoner was remanded until the 20th inst. The wife is in the hospital lying at the point of death and there is little hope of her recovery. The prisoner has been working for the stables for a number of years except for about a year when he drove a wagon for Lewis & Co., the Honolulu grocers.

Is there anything in the evidence of ties. Non-irritating cure.

Is there anything in the testimony of one's friends? Can reliance be placed upon state-

Mr. W. J. Maxwell of this town, Truant officer, writes thus: "I sueffred with a horrible pain in the small of my back (an almost invarable symptom of kidney trouble) for a number of years. I was advised to take some of Doan's Backache Kidney Pills, and following the suggestion, I went to the Hollister Drug Co.'s store, Fort street, and got some of these. Having taken them, they relieved me straight away, and are, I may say, the best and in fact the only cure for backache.
